

If it is Dress to wear

Select if the product is customizable      Yes - No (Check Box) (In case of dress wear)

If the product is custom stitched      Yes - No (Check Box) (In case of dress wear)

If the product is customizable than below image will appear with check box against each marking and seller can tick which ever option can be customized:

Now when it appears in website only text box will appear for selected option by seller and customer will be able to fill her measurements of those field only.

If it have the option of custom stitched also than all fields will appear in text format.

Customizable options available (submission of Measurements is to be provided in text field)